

General Circulation Models

Fluid equations of motion are typically finite-differenced or expressed in spherical harmonic functions. Add 'physics' (radiation, precipitation etc) at each grid point.